

Denmark

The subject on the picture is a very famous Danish sculpture, which is also the title of a fairy tale written by a very famous Danish author Hans Christian Andersen – The Little Mermaid or in Danish: Den Lille Havfrue.

The Little Mermaid is placed on Langenlinie, where she is one of the first things the tourists see of Denmark, when the big cruise ships dock the shore of our capital Copenhagen.

You can learn more about the Little Mermaid here:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Little\_Mermaid\_\(statue\))
(in many languages)

<http://www.mermaidsculpture.dk/thesculptor.php>
(the man who created the sculpture)

<http://www.visitcopenhagen.com/denmark/the-little-mermaid-gdk586951>

You can read more about the fairy tale the Little Mermaid here:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Little\_Mermaid
(in many languages)

You can learn more about Hans Christian Anderson here:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hans\_Christian\_Andersen
(in many languages)

<http://hca.gilead.org.il>
(in English)

<http://www.hcandersen-homepage.dk>
(in Danish, partly in English)