

Germany - Mehlingen

The Brandenburg Gate (German: Brandenburger Tor) is a former city gate, rebuilt in the late 18th century as a neoclassical triumphal arch, and now one of the most well known landmarks of Germany.

It is located in the western part of the city centre of Berlin. The gate is the monumental entry to "Unter den Linden", the renowned boulevard of linden trees, which formerly led directly to the city palace of the Prussian monarchs.
